

Talk to someone

“How can I, unless someone explains it to me?”

In short. Faith is a personal act, but not an isolated one: the believer receives faith from others and hands it on.¹ From the time of the apostles, becoming a Christian has been a journey in several stages, covered rapidly or slowly.²

Key points

- No one can believe alone, just as no one can live alone.¹
- Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.³
- Becoming a Christian is a journey in stages, rapid or slow.²
- The catechumenate brings conversion and faith to maturity, in union with an ecclesial community.⁴

Try this, this week

1. Read Acts 8:26–39. Notice that Philip starts from the passage the official is already reading.
2. Find a parish near you. Use the parish finder and note the office hours.
3. Send one short message. “I have some questions about the Catholic faith. Could we talk?”
4. Bring a friend if you like. A Catholic friend can come with you, or simply listen.

“Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, ‘Do you understand what you are reading?’ He said, ‘How can I, unless someone explains it to me?’ He begged Philip to come up and sit with him.”

Acts 8:30–31, World English Bible

Watch out: what this does not mean

- Program names and timetables differ from parish to parish; what does not change is that the catechumenate is a formation in the whole Christian life.⁴
- Initiation of adults reaches its culmination in a single celebration of the three sacraments of initiation.⁵

Video answer: Catholic Answers, stoneandincense.com/en/questions/how-long-does-becoming-catholic-take/

The Catechism says the journey of Christian initiation can be covered rapidly or slowly, but certain essential elements will always be present.² For adults it culminates in a single celebration of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist.⁵
