

Going to Mass with them

One hour. Here's what happens.

In short. Catholics are asked to take part in Mass every Sunday.¹ It has two great parts, the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist.²

Key points

- Sunday Mass matters deeply to them.¹
- Two halves: readings, then the Eucharist.²
- Communion is for Catholics who are prepared; guests can come forward for a blessing or stay seated.³

Common questions

Can I receive Communion?

- 1. Go once. Take the pew guide.
- 2. Get coffee after and ask what moved them.

What about our wedding?

Video answer: The Thomistic Institute (Dominican friars), stoneandincense.com/en/questions/what-about-our-wedding/

Marriage between a Catholic and a baptized non-Catholic needs the permission of Church authority, and with a non-baptized partner a dispensation.⁴ Both partners should know the purposes of marriage, and the Catholic partner promises to raise children in the faith.⁴
